FREE JAZZ SUNDAY WITH THE JEREMY WENDELIN QUARTET

Vail Jazz Foundation presents free Jazz at the Vail Farmers Market on Sunday, August 8 at Noon

Vail, CO August 4, 2010 – If you're looking to jazz up your Sunday market stroll, then look no further than the Vail Jazz Festival stage on Meadow Drive outside Annie's, where the Jeremy Wendelin Quartet will share their soulful jazz from noon to 3:00pm on August 8.

The Quartet is comprised of Jeremy Wendelin (saxophone, flute, clarinet), Bill Morse (piano), Colin Gieg (bass) and Scott Mattson (drums). Playing both classic and contemporary jazz, the Quartet focuses on great, entertaining compositions, with a sound that goes beyond the talents of its soloists

"Our material ranges from classics like Brubeck's 'Blue Rondo' to new tunes like Metheny's 'Last Train Home', and original compositions and arrangements," says group leader Wendelin. "We love to swing, groove, and have a good time, but what sets us apart is the variety of rhythms, textures, colors - and the way we use them to capture an audience."

The Vail Jazz Foundation presents the blues, standards, vocals and straight ahead jazz at the Vail Farmers' Market from noon to 3:30pm weekly. Next week's concert features the Max Wagner Quartet. Don't miss this unique opportunity to catch some of the region's hottest jazz talent - free on Meadow Drive in Vail Village – the show goes on rain or shine!
